Demetrius J. Parrish, Jr., Esquire

Demetrius Parrish is a native Philadelphian. He attended the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland and is a graduate of Southern University A & M College in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He holds a Bachelor's of Science degree in Mathematics and a law degree from the Southern University Law Center. Demetrius has been a member of the Pennsylvania Bar since 1989 and the New Jersey Bar since 1990. He is a member of the American and National Bar Associations and the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys.

Demetrius started his law career as an assistant City Solicitor for the Law Department for the City of Philadelphia under the administration of Mayor W. Wilson Goode. Later he was worked as associate at Marshall, Dennehey, Warner Coleman & Goggin, a nationally known Insurance Defense Law Firm headquartered in Philadelphia.

In mid-1995, inspired by the turmoil surrounding the O.J. Simpson verdict and the pride and unity resulting from the Million Man March, Demetrius “stepped out on faith to start his law firm in Philadelphia in January 1996. Since then the Law Office of Demetrius J. Parrish, Jr., now the Parrish Law Firm, has operated continuously in Southeastern Pennsylvania and all of New Jersey. While the firm focuses the practice in the areas of General Litigation, Bankruptcy and Decedent’s Estates, Demetrius has developed experience in a number of areas over the past 31 years.

Demetrius Parrish has been married to Stacie Johnson for the past 17 years and they have a 10 year old son, Devon. Additionally, Demetrius is a member of the Enon Tabernacle Baptist Church, a proud member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and he is a Past Worshipful Master of the John S. Watson, Lodge #23 of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.
